THE RICE CONCERT.

Famous Houston Tenor Charmed His Audience at Carnegie Hall.

Those who heard Mr. Leon Rice of Houston sing at Carnegie Hall last night, were delighted with every number on the program.

Miss Ira Blackshear of Navasota, as accompanist did splendid work, and emphasized well, the beautiful modulation of the gifted singer's voice. Misses Lucy Gibbs, Eulalia Dalton and Edna Leak, of Navasota, also appeared on the program, as piano soloists, and their playing added another charm to the "evening of melody."

Mr. Rice is indeed an artist, and possesses a sweet tenor voice of wonderful volume. His notes were so true, harmonious and sympathetic, that his delighted audience could but
